POPE'S INTENTION

We pray for those persons living on the margins of society, in inhumane life conditions; may they not be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance.

Chúng ta hãy cầu nguyện cho những người đang sống bên lề xã hội, trong những điều kiện vô nhân đạo; xin cho họ không bị các tổ chức bỏ qua, và không bao giờ bị coi thường.

A DUTY TO HELP ONE ANOTHER

Maria Trần Võ Thị Thái Phương - Đoàn Đức Mẹ La Vang - Worcester, Massachusetts

Would you be surprised if I said that all of creation and everything in it belongs to God? If all creation belongs to God, then we are mere stewards of God's creation. The Book of Genesis tells us that God gave humans dominion or rather the responsibility over the world and its resources; and thanks to my three boys, I've learned the infamous words of Spider-Man that "with great power comes great responsibility."

As a mother, wife, youth leader, and business professional, I am learning that it is not enough for us to simply be concerned with our own needs or only the needs of our immediate family, but as Jesus teaches, we also have a duty to care for one another. This month, the Church prays in a special way for the poor, the marginalized and those often overlooked and forgotten.

When I reflect on this message, I am reminded of my late friend and religious sister, Sister Theresa Khen, MPV, who was a huge inspiration to me. During the time of mass immigration, Sister Theresa helped to settle thousands of Vietnamese and other ethnic minorities through the refugee resettlement program in the Diocese of Worcester and though she knew little-to-no English, she eventually mastered the language enough to earn her master's degree from Boston University in order to better serve incoming migrants. This kind of achievement was incredibly rare at the time, especially because Vietnamese immigrants were only beginning to settle in the US, and no one would have thought that so much could be achieved by a little old Vietnamese nun whose only strength was God. And if you got the chance to know her, you would see that all her education and effort was never used for her own advantage, but always done out of a love for others and for her community.

Sister Theresa taught me this valuable lesson--one that is echoed this month through the prayers of the Church--that all of us have a duty to help one another, according to the gifts, talents, and resources that God has given us. According to the parable of the talents, it seems to me that those with more are asked to give more; and those with less are asked to give and do what they can for others. It is easy to overlook the poor and the marginalized, but I think to do so, would be to overlook Jesus Christ who lives in them.

May the peace and love of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist be with all Chapter Chaplains, Assistant Chaplains (Religious and Lay), Youth Leaders, Parents, and youth members of our League.

After two years of hiatus due to the pandemic, per popular requests and the support of the chapters in our League, the Executive Board of the St. Paul Hanh League of Chapters will host Hội Trại Tết Trung Thu (Mid-Autumn Festival) on Saturday, September 23rd, 2023, at St. Joseph's Social Hall @ St. Paul the Apostle Church, 235 Dwight Rd, Springfield, MA 01108. This festival will be an opportunity for the members of our League to come together, have fun, and learn about our Vietnamese culture in fraternal love. Besides special performances from various chapters and exciting competitions to help liven the festival, there will be fundraising activities to help cover the costs of our League's future activities like League conventions, retreats, and trainings.

For the Tết Trung Thu festival to be successful, the Executive Board of the St. Paul Hanh League of Chapters hopes that you strongly encourage and build resources for the youth in your chapter by participating in full, sharing your talents during our performance segment, and praying for the success of our festival. Here are some things we need your help with:
